Travel Policy

Document TRV-001 · Version 2.0 · Effective 1 March 2025 · Owner: Finance · Northwind Air

1. Purpose and scope

1.1 This policy sets out how Northwind Air employees and contractors plan, book and pay for travel on company business.

1.2 It applies to all employees and to contractors who travel at the company's expense.

1.3 Training and conference travel is governed by this policy in the same way as any other business trip.

2. Approval and booking

2.1 Every business trip requires written approval from the employee's line manager before any booking is made, regardless of cost.

2.2 Bookings must be made through the approved travel portal.

2.3 An approved itinerary that changes in cost or destination must be approved again by the line manager.

3. Flights

3.1 Economy class is the default for all flights.

3.2 Business class is not permitted on any flight, for any employee, under any circumstances.

3.3 Employees should choose the lowest logical fare that meets the business need.

3.4 Loyalty points earned on business travel may be kept by the employee.

4. Accommodation, meals and ground transport

4.1 Hotels

4.1.1 Hotel rates are capped at CAD 220 per night in major cities.

4.1.2 Hotels should be chosen from the preferred hotel list where one is available for the destination.

4.2 Meals

4.2.1 Meals on trips are reimbursed as a daily per diem. The rate for each city is listed in Table 4.1.

Table 4.1 Daily meal per diem by city

City	Daily per diem
Toronto	CAD 95
Montreal	CAD 85
Vancouver	CAD 90
Calgary	CAD 80
Halifax	CAD 75

4.2.2 Alcohol is not reimbursed under any circumstances.

4.3 Ground transport

4.3.1 Use of a personal vehicle for business travel is reimbursed at CAD 0.68 per kilometre.

4.3.2 Taxis and ride-hailing services may be used when public transport is not practical.

5. Expense claims

5.1 Travel expense claims must be submitted within 60 days of the end of the trip.

5.2 Claims are submitted using Form EX-12 in the finance portal.

5.3 Each claim must include the approved itinerary and the approval record.

5.4 Receipts are required for any expense over CAD 25.

6. Vehicle rentals

6.1 This policy governs all vehicle rentals used for business travel, and employees book rental cars through the travel portal.

6.2 The company purchases rental insurance. Employees must decline optional coverage offered at the rental counter.

7. Safety while travelling

7.1 Travellers must carry the company emergency contact number for the duration of the trip.

7.2 Any injury, theft or serious disruption during a trip must be reported to the line manager as soon as it is safe to do so.
